ORDER

Sub: Procedure and Guidelines for engagement of Consultants in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs - reg.

The Scheme of engagement of Consultants in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs shall henceforth be regulated as per the following guidelines:-

1. General conditions for engaging Consultants:

1.2 Consultants would be engaged for a fixed period for providing high quality services to the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs and for attending to specific and time-bound jobs of concerned Divisions of Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA).

1.2 Professionals, experts and retired Govt. servants with requisite qualification and experience, as described in Para 3, would be hired as consultants. MoHUA may, however prescribe specific guidelines for certain types of Consultants.

1.3 The appointment of Consultants would be on full-time basis and they would not be permitted to take up any other assignment during the period of Consultancy with Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs.

1.4 The appointment of Consultants would be of a temporary (non-permanent) nature and the appointment can be cancelled at any time by the Ministry without assigning any reason.

1.5 The term 'Consultant' would mean a Consultant in any of the three categories mentioned below, for which further details are enumerated in Para 3:

- (i) Consultant I
- (ii) Consultant II
- (iii) Consultant III

2. Number of Consultants:

- (a) Not more than the number of existing vacancies in respective grade as per the sanctioned strength of the main Secretariat.
- (b) As per requirement of the Division/ Wing concerned based on justification for appointing Consultants for a specific task and specific function.

3. Qualification and Fee of Consultants:

4. Period of engagement:

The initial term of appointment shall be decided on case to case basis depending upon the specific job and the time frame for its completion. However, such initial appointments and subsequent extension(s) if any, would be for a period not exceeding one year. The maximum continuous engagement for a person as Consultant would be 5 years. The extension beyond 3 years only after review of performance and extension beyond 5 years only after special review by Secretary.

5. Age limits:

No retired Government servant should be engaged as a consultant beyond 65 years' age. The requirement of age may be relaxed in public interest only in rare, deserving and exceptional cases, subject to nature of work, performance for work assigned to the consultant, submission of physical fitness certificate so as to allow him/ her for further continuation of service as a consultant & also subject to approval of Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs.

6. Procedure for selection:

6.1 The Divisions desirous of engaging Consultants shall prepare Terms of Reference for the work to be done in the format prescribed at Annexure-I (The format can be expanded by the concerned Division based on specific requirement) within the framework of provisions contained in:

- Chapter on Procurement of Services (Rule 178,180,181,185,194 and 195) of GFR, 2017; and
- Chapter I & VII (para 1.2.1, 7.1 & 7.2) of Manual of Policies and Procedure of Employment of Consultants

The process of direct engagement of retired Government servants are however not covered under these rules/ regulations as envisaged in rule 177 of GFR 2017.

6.2 A retired Government Servant can be hired as a consultant through a competitive process and can be engaged only for the specific task and for specific duration as consultant. They should be assigned clear cut output related goals.

Extract of these provisions is in Annexure -II.

6.3 Based on their requirement, the Division concerned will prepare an advertisement in the format outlined at Annexure - III (Format can be expanded by the division concerned as per requirement) for inviting applications for engagement of Consultants and place the same on the website of the Ministry. The vacancy shall also be advertised in one national newspaper (in Hindi and English each) as per format at Annexure - IV.

6.4 All applications received in response to the advertisement will be scrutinized and short listed by the concerned Divisions as per their requirement and in the light of consultancy guidelines. Thereafter, the concerned Division would submit a proposal before the Consultancy Evaluation Committee (CEC) which would recommend a panel of 3, which will include a waitlist of 2 persons, per vacancy for appointment. The CEC would be serviced by the concerned subject Division. The composition of the CEC for all the three categories of Consultants shall be as under:

Consultant I & II

Joint Secretary of concerned Wing	-	Chairman
Director/ DS (Administration)	-	Member
Director/DS, Finance Division	-	Member

Consultant III

Adtl. Secretary	-	Chairman
Joint Secretary of concerned Wing	-	Member
Director/DS (Administration)	-	Member
Director/DS, Finance Division	-	Member

6.5 After recommendation of the CEC, the concerned subject Division will process the case with reference to the criteria mentioned in the check-list (Annexure - V) for obtaining approval of IFD and Secretary (HUA) before issue of appointment orders, after the selected candidates accept offer and join.

7. Drawal of Pension:

A retired Government official appointed as Consultant in any of the three categories shall continue to draw Pension and the Dearness Relief on Pension during the period of his engagement as Consultant. His/her engagement as Consultant shall not be considered as a case of re-employment.

8. Allowances:

The Consultants shall not be entitled to any allowance such as Dearness Allowance, Residential Telephone, Transport facility, Residential Accommodation, Personal Staff, CGHS, Medical reimbursement etc. However, they will be entitled for 'local conveyance' as per the rates prescribed in para 5 above. Consultant-III may be considered for reimbursement of residential telephone charges as per Rule. They may also be provided personal staff from outsourced category subject to availability.

9. Leave:

Consultants shall be eligible for 8 days' leave in a calendar year on pro-rata basis. Therefore, a Consultant shall not draw any remuneration in case of his/her absence beyond 8 days in a year (calculated on a pro-rata basis). A certificate to the effect that the Consultant has performed his duty in the previous month will require to be given by the concerned Division's Head based on which fee would be released by the respective Division. Also unavailed leave in a calendar year cannot be carried forward to next calendar year. The Ministry would be free to terminate the services in case of absence of a Consultant by more than 15 days beyond the entitled leave in a calendar year.

ANNEXURE -II

Extracts of Chapter on Procurement of Services of GFR, 2017

Rule 176. The Ministries or Departments may hire external professionals, consultancy firms or consultants (referred to as consultant hereinafter) for a specific job, which is well defined in terms of content and time frame for its completion.

Rule 180. Identification of Services required to be performed by Consultants: Engagement of consultants may be resorted to in situations requiring high quality services for which the concerned Ministry/ Department does not have requisite expertise. Approval of the competent authority should be obtained before engaging consultant(s).

Rule 181. Preparation of scope of the required Consultant(s): The Ministries / Departments should prepare in simple and concise language the requirement, objectives and the scope of the assignment. The eligibility and prequalification criteria to be met by the consultants should also be clearly identified at this stage.

Rule 185. Preparation of Terms of Reference (TOR): The TOR should include

- (i) Precise statement of objectives;
- (ii) Outline of the tasks to be carried out;
- (iii) Schedule for completion of tasks;
- (iv) The support or inputs to be provided by the Ministry or Department to facilitate the consultancy;
- (v) The final outputs that will be required of the Consultant;

Rule 194. Single Source Selection/Consultancy by nomination: The selection by direct negotiation/nomination, on the lines of Single Tender mode of procurement of goods, is considered appropriate only under exceptional circumstance such as:

- (i) tasks that represent a natural continuation of previous work carried out by the firm;
- (ii) in case of an emergency situation, situations arising after natural disasters, situations where timely completion of the assignment is of utmost importance; and
- (iii) situations where execution of the assignment may involve use of proprietary techniques or only one consultant has requisite expertise.
- (iv) Under some special circumstances, it may become necessary to select a particular consultant where adequate justification is available for such single-source selection in the context of the overall interest of the Ministry or Department. Full justification for single source selection should be recorded in the file and approval of the competent authority obtained before resorting to such single-source selection.
- (v) It shall ensure fairness and equity, and shall have a procedure in place to ensure that the prices are reasonable and consistent with market rates for tasks of a similar nature; and the required consultancy services are not split into smaller sized procurement.

Rule 195. Monitoring the Contract: The Ministry/Department should be involved throughout in the conduct of consultancy, preferably by taking a task force approach and continuously monitoring the performance of the consultant(s) so that the output of the consultancy is in line with the Ministry /Department's objectives.

Annex II (contd.)Extracts of Chapter I & VII (para 1.2.1, 7.1 & 7.2) of Manual of Policies and Procedure of Employment of ConsultantsChapter I

1.2.1 The specific purpose and the specific rules and procedures to be followed for employing Consultants depend on the circumstances of the particular case. However, following main considerations would guide the need and the selection process:-

- (a) Absence of required expertise in-house;
- (b) The need for high quality services;
- (c) The need for economy and efficiency;
- (d) The need to have qualified Consultants for providing the specific services;
- (e) The importance of transparency in the selection process;
- (f) The identification of scope of work and the time frame for which services are to be availed of.

Chapter - VII

7.1. Individual consultants are normally employed on assignments for which (a) teams of personnel is not required, (b) no additional outside professional support is required, and (c) the experience and qualifications of the Individual are the paramount requirement.

7.2. Selection of Individual consultants shall be carried out by advertising the requirement in at least one national newspaper of repute. Selection shall be based on their qualifications for the assignment. They shall be selected through comparison of qualifications of at least three candidates among those who have expressed interest in the assignment or have been approached directly by the Employer. Individuals employed by Employer shall meet all relevant qualifications and shall be fully capable of carrying out the assignment. Capability is judged on the basis of academic background, experience, and, as appropriate, knowledge of the local conditions, such as local language, culture, administrative system, and government organization.
